

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

O. D. AND V. G. BABBAGE, Editors and Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 19, 1899.

SIX PAGES.

WHAT FORBIDS US FROM TELLING THE TRUTH GAILY?

Tempus Fugit.

A few years ago we boasted that the News was twenty-one years old and able to take care of itself. Today we call attention to the fact that this edition is the last number of the twenty-third volume and tomorrow the News starts in on the twenty-fourth year of its existence, and is still able to take care of itself.

Have you noticed, dear reader, that there is something paradoxical about this paper. Of course you have. You are observant enough to realize that the older it grows the younger it gets.

Look over the news pages today.

Notice how well every corner of this paper's peculiar bailiwick has been covered. See the items from Hartford, from Lewiston, from Palisville, from Brandenburg, from every town and hamlet of Breckinridge county. Surely for a county paper the News is surprising. It must have the energy of youth, the vitality, the buoyancy of manhood's dawn to do its work so well.

That is the secret of the paper's success. Its vigorous manhood. It realizes that its 3,500 subscribers are the best people on earth—that they admire energy, courage, stamina and patriotism.

Sometimes our subscribers tell us. For instance there is Jefferson Ballow, of Spencerville. He takes the trouble to sit down and put $1 or $2 in an envelope to send us in payment for subscription. Then he does something nice that, we hope, a note to accompany it and the note reads this way.

"John Babbage:—I find you are a gentleman and that you have got a lot of reason about you. You print a good county paper and you will always find a sale for it. I believe you have done more for the country than a great many law makers have done. If anything important comes up you unravel it for us. I can see you are a useful man."

That letter did us a heap of good. We appreciated it more than we would precious jewels or fine gold. It reminded us of the truth of what General Old said that there is more to live for in this world than money.

Sometimes though we are taken off our high horse. When we have backbone enough to say "The News believes in this and so" and that "thus and so" is different from the belief of some of our subscribers one of them says:

"John Babbage—I take my pen in hand to write these few lines to tell you that you committed the crime of 1873—yes and that old Benedict Arnold John Sherman. Stop my paper."

It makes that subscriber feel good. He thinks he has "scotched" us. Feels like a old miser that has foreclosed a mortgage on the homestead of an enemy.

Feels that he has busted the paper and that we can't get along without his support—but says readers we get fat on that kind of thing. It makes our friends stick closer to us and sometimes we collect money on subscriptions that would otherwise go to the lone side of the ledger.

Well, the News would rather be right than be president. It would rather be the best county paper in the state than be a hide bound party organ.

It's got the salt of the earth as its constituency. It's only twenty-four years old and has a long time yet in which to preach God and morality.

A GREAT OFFER.

Farmer Journal From Now to December, 1903. Nearly Five Years.

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the Farmer Journal we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for the BRECKENRIDGE News one year ahead, for only $1, both papers for the price of ours only; our paper one year and the Farmer Journal from now to December, 1903, nearly five years.

Secretary Atosa has not resigned nor will he resign. He is resigned to the situation and the public may as well accept with resignation the fact that there are no prospects of his resigning.

THE ENGLISH AND AMERICAN OF IT.

An English statesman asked Chancellor Depew, while the latter was in England, why the United States did not send an Agent to the Hague. Depew said: "I told him that the people of the United States were rather hard one hundred thousand, two hundred thousand or even three hundred thousand, than a number of the party, Miss Cotterell, Baker, Simmons, Tomson and Skillman; Meers, Willis, Skillman, Herbert and Beard, Dr. John and Lewis Kincheloe were entertained at the home of Dr. A. M. Kincheloe by the attractive Miss Mary L. Smith until the wee hours of the night. Music was furnished by Miss Cotterell and Meers, Willis and Kincheloe.

Deacons Make a Record.

Philistines Baptist church can best say other church on deacons. They are H. D. Bruner, Walter Medford, W. W. Spencer and William Powers. Last May H. D. Bruner's wife presented him with a fine box. Last Thursday night Deacon Willard's wife presented him with a girl. Last Friday night Deacon W. W. Spencer's wife presented him with a ten pound boy. If there is another church in the state which can beat this for energetic deacons let their hear of it.

The editor of the Farmer Journal says: "I have no more to say about the cross, cross board, grip, leak in the roof, hole in the pocket, skeleton in the closet, or any other pain or trouble, when you can get the Farmer Journal for the balance of 1899 and all of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, nearly five years, by paying a year in advance for the BRECKENRIDGE News." You can do it if you are not too late.

He's a Great Fan.

Emil Nola went to Louisville last week to pickup the Colonials. He took Dreyfus aside and after giving him some good advice, he got hold of the team and went to the race track and the men, I suppose, is a favorite to the community and family, and you gain pleasure in honor to him to know he let the weight of your disapproval.

"I don't care how brave man is, if he is a fool he is a fool. He is not worth knocking in the head."

Charles Mook, traveling representative of Carter Dry Goods Co., of Louisville, has reached this city with his fall line. Mr. Mook bears the reputation of being one of the most successful commercial men on the road. His trade this year is something enormous.

A Dutch Supper.

At Dr. A. M. Kincheloe's, several of the young men, Mercer, Board, Bowmar, Dr. J. E. and Lewis Kincheloe, have a Dutch supper in honor of Miss Florence Cottrell. The young ladies present were, Misses Baker, Gardner and Smith.

Died at Lakewood.

James Easton, an old resident of the town who was committed to the Lakewood Insane asylum last year because of his vagaries, died there Monday morning at 8 a.m. His remains will be interred at Lakewood.

Mr. Goebel is able, but he is also a believer in corrupt political methods and Mr. Bryan says: "The ablest man alive, if committed to the country to command to just the extent of his brilliancy and ability, and you gain pleasure in honor to him to know he let the weight of your disapproval."

"If a man is lacking in common honesty, he is not worth knocking in the head."

Mr. Goebel is able, but he is also a believer in corrupt political methods and Mr. Bryan says: "The ablest man alive, if committed to the country to command to just the extent of his brilliancy and ability, and you gain pleasure in honor to him to know he let the weight of your disapproval."

Bryan is spoken. Let all good Democrats who believe in honesty in politics a fair expression at the polls and the development of bomen, follow Bryan's advice.

Miss Mr. Goebel feel the weight of your disapproval.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Adams, Ohio.

Brownsburg, Ind.—Benton or News.

As a faithful reader of your paper, and a loyal son of Breckinridge county, I am interested in anything that appears in your columns.

I write now to command you for your broad words in the last issue, in regard to the late George Fullam.

I admire your courage in speaking your thoughts. I have been convinced for many years that the hope of the country is in this independent voter within the party. When it is made to appear that men do some thinking for themselves, and there is a limit to the leading of public opinion, then the people will be more inclined for public office. I hope the Republicans of the state will be able to do this. I will comment on the news you have given me in your columns in the future. I will be in Lakewood, Breckinridge, I hope to visit the old haunts sometimes next month.

Yours truly,
R. O. BATES.

WALSH WALSH WALL!

Watson, Ky.—Mr. Babbage:—I see from your issue of the 12th, a notice of the compilation of Mr. R. N. Hudson's "Walls of the Past," which gave him all the credit. Now Mr. Hudson is a builder of railroads, not an architect. I claim all the credit of planning and specifying the designs of the buildings, and if my reputation as an architect was not so well known, I think I would have been able to sue you for damages.

Under existing circumstances I will over pay you for the damage you have done in future.

It must have the energy of youth, the vitality, the buoyancy of manhood's dawn to do its work so well.

Editorial Note. The Covington News has been so good that we will wipe up the board in a "jiffy."

S. N. Hall, Mgr.

Delighted Eventful.

At the town of Hainsburg on Wednesday evening a supper was given at the home of Miss Florence Cottrell, Mrs. W. W. Spencer, Mrs. Alice Baker, Miss Margaret Skillman and Tomson, of Oweneboro, and Meers, James Skillman and Jess Willis entertained the crowd at the lake. A delightful bunch was served at 8:30 and the crowd attended. There was a great deal of fun and a good time was had by all.

At 9 o'clock the band came on the scene.

They are the band of the Breckinridge Normal School.

They are blasters and have a complete knowledge of the modern methods of teaching.

They are preparing a beautiful catalogue of the college and we urge Breckinridge county people to patronize them as they are equipped to give pupils the best education for the least money.

To eradicate worms from the system give the child plain, nourishing food and WHITES CREAM VERMIFUGE. The result will be, the worms will disappear and the child become healthy and cheerful. Price 25 cts.—A. R. Fisher.

Soldier Boy Coming Home.

Bill Farmer, who has been in the regulars for three years and who has been all through the battles in Central America, writes that he has come home and is liable to be here August 5th. He has made a splendid record as a soldier and is enjoying splendid health.

Killed a Rattler.

Henry Bellville, colored, who lives in Big Spring and Beaverville, killed a rattlesnake three and a half feet long that had twelve rattles, one last week.

There were a few more rattles that were lost in the killing, making the snake about 16 inches old.

Attention Democrats.

There will be a meeting of the democratic county committee at Hardinsburg, Gus Brown's office, at 1:30 p.m. Monday, July 24th. All democrats are invited to attend. JAMES WHITWORTH, Chmn.

Seriously Injured.

Oliver Mattingly, while engaged at the Cornwell stone quarry below town was severely bruised last week and as a result of his injuries has been laid up.

He is a favorite with the men, I suppose, is a favorite to the community and family, and you gain pleasure in honor to him to know he let the weight of your disapproval.

The "Deerick Skule" that will be played at City Hall, Saturday the 22nd will be one of the very best plays for pure entertainment. It is a play of some of "Skule" and soon, then follows the afternoon "Exhibition," which is composed of pieces, compositions and songs by the scholars, and an address by the committeemen, and a very "touching" poetical sketch by the "Master" from the pen of Mrs. Homay, single, and the young girls, the twain, the boys, and the young boys, the young men and the young scholars, and Eskiel, our own little baby, just four years old, and other characters too numerous to mention and make this play full of fun and merriment. The characters all being represented by grown folks dressed as "Skule" for 50 years ago. You can't afford to miss it, so come Saturday the 22nd, at City Hall, Stephenson. Admission 15 cents, Children 12 years and under, 10 cents.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howland St., Philadelphia, Pa., at the "Deerick Skule" at Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this royal Cure, "It soon relieved the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, and can sit, walk, and generally move about without any trouble." The "Deerick Skule" is the most popular show throughout the "Univers."
